Dear Tim,

A friend here clipped the enclosed from, I think, a Washington newspaper. Thought you might be interested in it.

Also, belated congratulations on your selection as V. P. for the S. I. S. Joe Mathews wrote to me of this.

My work goes well and I am enjoying my students. But, as usual, I'm swamped. Now I have to lay my back aside for a bit to prepare two papers — one for the Br. Assn. for Am. Studies meeting in April & one for the Anglo-American Historical Conference in July. Wish me luck.

All the best to you & Dutch & the family for 1962. I hope that when I return we can get to know each other better. I know I can never fill

George's shoes as a colleague and as a close friend, but I am going to try.

Yours ever,

Joe
